

Brief Biography

Brian Lawlor

Description: Psychiatrist

Professional Occupation: Psychiatrist, St. James Hospital, Dublin; Connolly Norman Professor of Old Age Psychiatry, Trinity College Dublin. Deputy Co-Director, Global Brain Health Institute

Qualifications: MB BCh BAO* (UCD) (1980). D.Obs., DCH (1983). Member Royal College of Physicians of Ireland (1984) American Boards in Psychiatry (1989) MD (1990) Additional qualification in Geriatric Psychiatry, American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (1991). Fellow (Hon), Royal College of Psychiatrists 1993, Fellow Royal College of Physicians of Ireland (1993)

Postgraduate Training: Residency Programme in Psychiatry, University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida. Medical Staff Fellowship, Section of Neuropharmacology, NIMH, Bethesda, Maryland. Assistant Professor and Chief of Psychogeriatrics, Mount Sinai Hospital, New York.

Assessment Experience:

Professor of Old Age Psychiatry, University of Dublin. Collaborator, Alzheimer's Disease Unit, Mount Sinai, New York. Academic Organiser, Dublin Eastern Region Psychiatric Training. External Examiner, Diploma in Mental Health, Queen's University, Belfast. External Examiner, Final Medical, University of Liverpool, University College Cork. Former Editor-In-Chief, Irish Journal of Psychological Medicine.

Publications: Author 5 books, 320 publications.

Convenor for American University of the Caribbean School of Medicine Inspection Committee, St Maarten.