

Accreditation Commission on Colleges of Medicine

Brief Biography

John Brock-Utne

Description: Professor of Anaesthesia (Emeritus)

Professional Occupation: Professor of Anaesthesia, Emeritus, Stanford University School of Medicine, California, USA. District Director, District #4, California Society of Anaesthesia, Council Member of Santa Clara California Medical Association.

Academic Qualifications: MA., M.D., FFA (SA), PhD.

Academic and Assessment Experience: 1981 to 1988 - Professor and Head of Department of Physiology, Senior Anesthesiologist and Senior Lecture in Department of Anesthesia, University of Natal Medical School. Durban, South Africa. Lectured in all aspects of physiology. Member of the University of Natal Medical School Research Committee and the Medical School Heads of Department Committee and Ethics Committee. Reviewer of South African Medical Schools as requested by the South African Medical Association.

1989-1999: Professor of Anesthesia Stanford University, California, USA. Member of Departments, Research Committee, Educational Committee, Member of Medical Student teaching committee and Resident Selection committee. 1990-96: Member Association of University Anesthesiologist USA.

1999-2006: Professor of Anesthesia, Department of Anesthesia Stanford University, Associate Residency Program Director. Chair Clinical Departmental Research Meetings, Member of Department Research Committee, Educational Committee, Chair of Medical Students Teaching Committee and Resident Selection Committee.

2006 to present: Professor of Anesthesia (Emeritus) Stanford University. Member of Stanford University Medical Center Committee for Pharmacy, Therapeutic & Professionalism. Reviewer to 8 Editorial boards.

21 Visiting professorships (incl. Argentina, UAE, Saudi Arabia, Germany, Norway, South Africa, Australia, Myanmar and Zimbabwe), 95 invited lectureships.

Publications: 220 Peer Reviewed Articles, 340 Abstracts, 104 Letters to Editor, 6 Medical Textbooks with several translated into French, Polish and Chinese.

Assistant Convenor for University of Medicine & Health Sciences School of Medicine Inspection Committee, St. Kitts.

May 2016