

Professor Sir Ian Gilmore

Description:

Professor of Medicine, University of Liverpool
Honorary Consultant Physician, Royal Liverpool University Hospital
Director, Liverpool Centre for Alcohol Research

Qualifications and Honorary degrees:

MB, BChir (Cantab) MA (Cantab), MD (Cantab), MD (Liverpool Hon Caus.), MD (St Andrew's Hon Caus.) MRCP, FRCP, FRCP (Edin), FRCP (Glas), FRCPI, FRACP, FACP, FCP(SA), FRCPsych, FFLM, FRCPath, FRCGP, FRCP (Thailand), FCP (Ceylon), FCPS (Pakistan)

Postgraduate training:

St Thomas' Hospital, Charing Cross Hospital, Medical Research Council Training Fellowship, Medical Research Council Travelling Fellowship (University of California San Diego).

Visiting Appointments

1989 June - Visiting Scholar, University of California, San Diego, USA, 1991 May - Visiting Professor, University of South Carolina, USA, 1998 May - Visiting Professor, University of New Mexico, USA, 2010 August - Visiting Professor, University of Adelaide, Australia, 2013-present Adjunct Professor, Curtin University, Perth, Australia

Leadership roles:

President, Royal College of Physicians 2006-10, Registrar, Royal College of Physicians 1999-2005, President British Society of Gastroenterology 2012-14, Chairman, Alcohol Health Alliance UK 2008-present. Director Liverpool Centre for Alcohol Research 2019-present.

Assessment experience:

Examiner: Universities of Liverpool, London, Bristol, Newcastle, Chinese University of Hong Kong, Trinity College Dublin, Membership of the Royal Colleges of Physicians UK

Publications:

More than 120 books, chapters and peer-reviewed scientific papers