

Philip Berman

Brief Biography

Description: Health policy expert and hospital director.

Professional Occupation: Director of Corporate Strategy, Tallaght University Hospital (2006-2010).

Academic Qualifications: BA (Hons) History & Political Science (1970), MA (1983), Dip.Admin Sci (1983) Awarded Kellogg Foundation Fellowship to North America 1980-81 to study structure of healthcare management education. Regular Guest Lecturer (to 2006) at Medical School Trinity College Dublin, Business School University College Dublin, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, Institute of Public Administration Dublin and Centre for Healthcare Management, Manchester Business School UK. Invited lecturer at 11 conferences throughout Europe and in US since 1999. Over 25 publications.

Director of European Health Management Association (1980-2006); Irish Red Cross Strategy Advisor on Restoring Family Links and Migration (2010-2016); Member of European Union Health Strategy Expert Group (2007); Member of Advisory Board Eurohealth (2006-2007); Member of EU's High Level Committee of Reflection on patient mobility and healthcare developments in the European Union (2003); Member WHO EURO Health Systems Development Advisory Group (2001-2004). Board Member Adelaide and Meath Hospital (2002-2006); Coordinated 5 major EU-funded health policy research projects; Adviser to WHO (1983-2006) and to the World Bank (1993-1994).

Assessment Experience:

Evaluated over 20 schools of public health and healthcare management university programmes in Europe. Member Irish Health Services Accreditation Advisory Council (2002-2006). European Commission expert evaluator (2007-2014): FP7 health innovation, Horizon 2020 ICT policy support programme, Advancing active and healthy ageing with ICT, PHC 20. PPI Reviewer, Irish Health Research Board (2020)