

Upholding Excellence in Medical Education

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

ANTHONY PEACOCK

Description: General Practitioner

Professional Occupation: In Family Practice since 1981 in a suburb of south Dublin. Since 2018 has become part of Centric Health, an international healthcare organization.

Qualifications: MB, BCh BAO*, MRCP, FAAP, 1st Class Hons.(1978) Diploma in Child Health (1980) Diploma in Obstetrics (1981) Member Royal College of General Practitioners (1989)

Postgraduate Training: St Vincent's Hospital, Our Lady's Hospital and St James Hospital, Dublin. Assessment Experience: Tutor, University College Dublin, responsible for undergraduate and postgraduate teaching programmes including DCH extension programme in Paediatrics in Kuwait.

Currently: Lecturer in General Practice for undergraduates, Royal College of Surgeons and University College Dublin.

- Founder member of ACCM.
- Current Hon. Secretary ACCM
- Convenor for Medical University of the Americas School of Medicine Inspection Committee, Nevis.